Keeping Up With Torrance High

By RUTH GRANGER

At the first Commercial Club meeting for this semester held recently, new members were voted in and a constitution was drawn up and adopted. This club is going to be in charge of the Torrance Relief drive, and committees were chosen to head the work. Plans for a social get-together were discussed. The sponsor is Miss M. Jones.

The Monthly Torch staff was recently completed, and it is as follows: Editor, Birdie Hale; associate editor, Mildred McMullen; circulation manager, Myrtle Gregg; active editors, Gayne Truer and Roger McGinnis; club editors, Mary Anne Taylor and Vee Knapp; boys' sports editor, Louis Zamperini; girls' sports editor, Sylvia Zamperini; joke editor, Lorraine Roelofs; verse editor, Jane Burkert; alumni news editor, John Hudson and Georgia Higgins.

With Ella Levy presiding, the G. A. A. held its first meeting at which it was decided that the Torrance G. A. A. would be hostesses to Narbonne, Gardena and Hanning high schools at a play day to be given in the early part of December. Plans for the play day were discussed and committees were chosen to start making preparations. Girls who are interested in G. A. A. must earn 100 points during the semester in order to stay on the roll of the club. This year there will be after-school basketball practices and the winning team will receive 100 G. A. A. points. Those who do not make the winning team will be given 25 points for coming out to the practices which will be held on Wednesday afternoon.

Recently Major Schoof of the Canadian Mounted Police gave a most exciting talk about his experiences as a globe trotter. Mr. Schoof showed the students many interesting relics including the skins of zebras, lions, bears, leopards, snakes and crocodiles. The most interesting were the skin of a lion who had eaten one of Schoof's friends, killed a horse, and consumed six natives; and the skin of a crocodile 72 feet long that had eaten many of the men on the party. He told of his journeys through jungles with grass six and seven feet high and infested with snakes, lions, etc. Major Schoof was from Germany originally and came to America for his health when he was eight years old. His talk was very thrilling and was enjoyed by all students who attended the aud call.

Many of the students are interested in knowing that the school library had received a shipment of new books. Some of the books are "Young Mexico" by Richard Carvel, "Men and Machines" by Babbit, "Authors Today and Yesterday" and "Radio Amateurs' Handbook."

It was announced at the high school that there would not be a loose-leaf annual as formerly planned, but that the regular annual year book would be published. However, the Monthly Torch will also be published, and it will replace the T. N. T., the old school paper.

Good news was received by Mr. Waldelich that Mr. London Corbett had accepted our invitations to the Torrance-Narbonne game. An inter-class contest was staged at the high school, the result of which was 70 letters sent to Mr. Corbett inviting him to the game. A record of each class is as follows: Freshmen, 72; eighth grade, 42; seventh grade, 41; Juniors, 18; sophomores, 15; seniors, 12.

On last Friday's KRKD program Torrance was commended for her spirit, and one of the letters received was read over the air. The program next Friday promises to be very thrilling as the complete Torrance-Narbonne game will be told.

The students wish to thank the print shop which printed cards with a picture of the high school on them and also the teachers who helped them.

Woman Hurt In Auto Accident

Mrs. Mary Lathrop, 829 West 23rd street, San Pedro, was slightly injured Sunday in an auto accident at Hawthorne and Torrance boulevards when the car in which she was riding with Mr. and Mrs. Mel Wolf, 2514 1/2 Carmone street, Los Angeles, struck the rear of a car driven by H. H. Harper, 1212 Island street, Wilmington. In Harper's report to the city police he stated that he had made the boulevard stop on Hawthorne boulevard when the Wolf car struck him from behind. Harper took Mrs. Lathrop to San Pedro for first aid and then to her home. Wolf was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and was released on $25 bail to appear October 31 in the city police court. He paid a fine of $25.00 and was released.

NEW COURTROOM

Finishing touches are being put on a new courtroom for the use of the city police judge in quarters above the jail. The rooms were formerly used as an apartment occupied by Fire Chief A. D. Stevenson and his family. The rooms have been remodeled and will now be used by the law.

Two Men Arrested For Drunk Driving

L. E. Martin, who gave his address as Redondo Beach, but whose car operator's license showed a Sallinas address, was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunk driving, and was fined $25 or 12 1/2 days in jail in the Torrance police court Monday morning. Martin paid $10, the balance of the fine being suspended.

While Officers Ernest Ashton and Frank Schumacher were busy interrogating Martin at the intersection of Hawthorne and Sepulveda boulevard, Harvey Ingram drove his car into the bank at the side of the road and caromed off against the police car, wrecking one of its doors. Ingram was also taken into custody on a charge of drunk driving, and was released Monday morning on $25 bail, to appear Wednesday, October 31.

He was fined $25 with $20 suspended for two years on condition that he have the police car repaired and attend church regularly. He paid the balance.

SACK OF POTATOES TAKEN FROM SAFEWAY

Glen Hammack, manager at the Safeway store on Cabrillo avenue, reported to police yesterday that a man had been seen to load a sack of potatoes into his car and drive away from the store without settling for them. Donald Bechtel, an employee, was the witness. He took the license number and police found that the car was registered to M. L. Clay, 560 D street, Brawley.

every other team in the league last year.

The game tomorrow will bring out every ounce of strategy there is in either team, and the outfit with the slickest bag of tricks will have the best chance of winning. On its result hinges a clearcut championship, or a possible tie for the honor.

Starting Lineups

Both line-ups are subject to change before the game, but the changes will be announced. All players are numbered and programs containing the name and number of each player will be distributed to the spectators so that all substitutions can be correctly noted.
